PREFACE.

The reference numbers given in this catalogue are those described in the "Lincoln Bibliography, a list of books and pamphlets relating to Abraham Lincoln. Compiled by Daniel Fish, of the Minnesota Bar. New York, Francis D. Tandy & Co., 1906."

Since this bibliography was printed, Judge Fish has listed 410 additional items in three typewritten lists. These numbers when listed have been referred to as "Fish Sup." (Supplement) with the number following.

In this catalogue we have endeavored to make a straight alphabetical catalogue by authors or by title when author was unknown. In this way the books by each author will be found together rather than following the numbers according to the Fish Bibliography and the three Supplemental lists each with its own alphabet.

There are a number of titles described as not mentioned in Fish which were printed previous to 1906, also many Lincoln Day Programmes, Menus, Addresses and Speeches which have been printed in recent years and have not yet been listed. The collection includes a few books that are contemporary with Lincoln and contain a biography or an account of his administration. These books have not been listed in the Bibliography as bearing fully upon Lincoln, but they are necessary for reference or historical research.

This collection is the most complete that has been ever offered for sale by auction.

It includes about 550 of the numbers listed in the Fish Bibliography, 350 (out of 400) of the items listed in the Supplements and about 200 items not yet listed, together over 1,100 items. There are only 1,490 items listed by Fish, including the supplements.

Also included are a few Lincoln Autographs, Documents, Broadsides and Engraved Portraits.
